Among Mourners in Albany Cathedral Were Orphans Whom Financier Aided.

ALBANY, Aug. 2 .- The funeral of Anthony N. Brady was attended to-day by a large number of persons from all parts of the country. Among those at the church were Gov. and Mrs. Sulzer, Lieut.-Gov. and Mrs. Glynn and scores of men prominent in the country of t

Glynn and scores of men prominent in financial, commercial and political life.

The services were simple. A low requiem mass celebrated by Bishop Thomas M. A. Burke at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception was attended by 1,500 persons. Bishop Burke spoke briefly in a consolatory way to the members of Mr. Brady's family, described the loss that the family and the communities which Mr. Brady had helped would sustain by his death, and dealt with the manly part Mr. Brady had taken in the affairs of the financial world. The Bishop emphasized Mr. Brady's virtues as a father and husband and his generosity as a patron of the church and the poor.

Mr. Anderson had been retired from business since the death of his father several years ago. He had lived in this city and vicinity for nearly forty years. A daughter, Mrs. Alice M. Ingersoll of Los Angeles, survives him. A son, Harry, died here last December and another son died in Brazil several years ago.

The piece of property at 319 and 321 Broadway, on which the old tobacco firm conducted business and which was sold when the business went into the hands of the American Tobacco Company, brought the biggest price ever paid for a piece of property of similar size in the world. Mr. Anderson's estate is estimated at $5,000,000. as a patron of the church and the poor.

JESSIE WILSON'S IDEA

Seventy-five Colleges Furnish Leaders in Movement to Help Country Girls.

CITY GIRLS LEARN TOO

of Plan's Great Success in Many States.

Miss Jessie Wilson, daughter of the President, was one of the originators of the Eight Weeks Club, a part of the Young Women's Christian Association, of whose national board Miss Wilson is a member. Reports just received at the dicate that Miss Wilson's idea is taking tremendously.

This is the first season, yet within the last six weeks more than six hundred of. these clubs have been formed. They cover almost every State, but are most numerous are furnishing leaders for these clubs, including Miami. Oberlin, Ohio Wesleyan. Goucher, where Miss Wilson was educated Randolph-Macon and Grinnell.

This Eight Weeks Club plan gets hold of young women in the small towns and in the country through young women from the colleges. It is Miss Wilson's idea that women fortunate enough to have parents to pay all of their expenses through college ought in turn to be willing to do something for other women. A good many have their own automobiles, and the Y. W. C. A does not hesitate to suggest to such young women methods to use their automobiles to help others. Hence the Eight Weeks Club, the time between spring and fall terms of the colleges, witha reasonable period for all needed vaca-one of the features of these new clubs is that through them city and college girls get visions of the country and come Itac know the strong and healthy country girls. The city needs the country, it is said by the club enthusiasts, and this club plan helps the city to get it.

Another part of the club plan is to help the country girl to help herself and her the country girl to help herself and her the community. There are home culture, social service, domestic science, religious education. Christian efficiency and a score of other lines. Reports already reaching the Y. W. C. A. headquarters in this city and transmitted to Miss Wilson up in New Hampshire indicate that in several country districts

"Glad to hear everything is running smoothly. I won't be back until Tuesday. My daughter needs me for a little tennis."
